MuskogeeE-Bike

The regional e-bike share offers a fun and healthy way to experience Muskogee.

If you're looking for a little outdoor adventure, check out the Centennial Trail.

Ride your bike, go for a run or take a stroll on the 14.1-mile scenic loop trail. Centennial Trail starts in downtown's Depot Green, takes you west around the Love-Hatbox Sports Complex, then heads north through the bustling part of town. Along Centennial South, you'll find the Coody Creek Bark Park, where you and your furry friend can have some fun.

How about a round of golf?

The Muskogee Golf Club was founded in 1903 and its mature trees, undulating fairways and challenging bent grass greens make it one of the premier places to play in Eastern Oklahoma.
